

TEAMS POISED FOR SOFTBALL TITLE GAMES

STATE LEGION FINALS AT CITY PARK ON LABOR DAY

American Legion softball teams in Greencastle, East Chicago, Huntington and Versailles are poised today for the final games to be played at Robe-Ann park here Monday afternoon and to determine the 1947 state champion.

The first game is scheduled to be underway at 1:30 p. m. between Greencastle and Versailles in a Labor Day crowd which is expected to be more than 4,000.

Chicago and Huntington are scheduled in the second holiday encounter and the championship contest will be played at 8 p. m. between the two teams.

Local Legion officials have been very busy trying to complete all details, including extra accommodations for the visiting teams and fans, and eat arrangements.

In case of rain, the state finals will be held in this city next Monday, Sept. 7.

No charge is being made for games but Legionnaires are being asked to help defray the expenses for holding the softball championship tournament.

County Council Meets Tuesday

Following the regular meeting of the commissioners on Monday, Putnam County Council will meet Tuesday for a two-day session during which the members will go over the proposed budgets of the various taxing districts for the coming year.

After the council completes its work, the tax levies and budgets for 1948, will be studied by the Adjustment Board which is scheduled to meet September 8-9. Findings of this board will be sent to the State Tax Commission for final action on the tax for next year.

The County Council sessions as well as the meeting of the Tax Adjustment Board will be held in the commissioners' room on the second floor of the courthouse.

Defensive Driving Sept. 1

INDIANAPOLIS, August 30 (UP)—Defensive Driving was scheduled today for the Labor Day weekend by Col. Robert Rossow, superintendent of State Police.

Rossow laid down four rules for motorists to follow if they wish to live through the summer's last three-day holiday:

Start early so that they can avoid the slower moving traffic.

Anticipate hazards, be alert for emergencies.

Observe traffic regulations.

Check brakes, lights, tires, and other accident-prevention equipment before starting.

The State Police head said "caution" would eliminate boating, swimming and fly-fishing.

Last year, Rossow said, there were 13 deaths over a 4-day Labor Day weekend, in some 859 accidents. He said 353 persons were injured in those accidents.

CABINS OPEN SUNDAY

The D. A. R. cabins in Robe-Ann park will be open to the public Sunday afternoon.

20 Years Ago

IN GREENCASTLE

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eitel and Mr. Kenneth, motored to Indianapolis.

Bernard Monnett, operator at the traction station, was on his way home.

Mrs. E. F. Corwin returned from Ludington, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pitchford were in Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Browning arrived home from a trip to Estes Park, Colo.

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

GREENCASTLE LAWNESS-NESS—In 1882 not everyone living in Greencastle obeyed the law—Maybe, after all, we are showing some improvement in our behavior—"The jail had twenty-six inmates Monday morning, many of them in on a charge of drunkenness. This would indicate that we were premature in announcing last week that drunkenness had almost disappeared in the city. Marshall Starr says that he intends to enforce the law strictly against all violators."

TELEPHONE COMPLAINTS

With a large number of Greencastle telephones not on speaking terms with their subscribers since the storm of a few days ago, those persons can't appreciate the condition of an old lady of Greencastle in 1882—"An old lady of this city has been driven to the verge of insanity by the telephone. She imagines that she hears it talking to her at all hours of the night."

BRIGHT FUTURE

(News item from THE BANNER August 31, 1882)—"A bright future seems to be drawing for Asbury University. It was publicly stated by the Committee on Education in the Southwest Indiana Conference, that W. C. DePaw of New Albany proposed to endow the institution with $1,000,000, provided that $100,000 is contributed or raised by others. The conference agreed to raise $25,000 of the amount. It is understood that a great effort will be made to raise the entire $100,000 during the centennial of Indiana Methodism."

INDIANA STREET UNDER-PASS

Citizens of Greencastle were "safety conscious" as far back as 1882—"The dangerous character of the crossing at the North Depot has created a general desire for the opening of passageways under the railroad at the end of North Indiana Street. A number of farmers living north of town are willing to assist in paying the expense, some of them as much as $100, each."

RACCOON COMPLAINTS

On August 17, 1882, the following item from Raccoon appeared—"We had a number of plain drunks Sunday. Got their liquor at Roachdale. Who will enforce the law?"—Now what has Roachdale got to say about it.

SIDE OF THE ROAD (By Scotty)

The people who were spending the summer in that rustic cabin down on the river, have gone back to the city. They had intended to stay all summer, but she told a neighbor, who told another neighbor, who told me, that although the cabin was perfect, the scenery beautiful and the fish biting well, they just could not stand the noise out here in the country.

It seems that the croaking of frogs and the hissing of the locust all night were bad enough, but when a fox screamed nearby, it all but curdled their blood. Then at daybreak, the bird chorus joined the locust choir and usually they were joined by a dismal voiced hound who fancied himself a baritone. The climax came when a flock of ravenous crows held a convention in a neighboring corn field.

So our friends have gone back to the city where it is quieter—or maybe just to be where they can see the things which make the noise.

COUNCIL TO MEET

The city council will meet promptly at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening.

SAFE DRIVING TO BE TAUGHT HIGH SCHOOL BOYS, GIRLS

Supt. Kleckner is shown here receiving the keys for a new Ford Tudor sedan from J. D. McLean of King, Morrison, Foster Co., who made available this car for safety driving instructions in the schools during the coming school year. Safe driving and safety will be a regular course in the schools, being under the instruction of Tom Goldsberry. Shown in the picture, left to right are Lt. St. John, Indiana State Police; Russell Clapp, city police chief; William Bishop, high school principal; Supt. Kleckner, Tom Goldsberry and J. D. McLean.

School Hearing September 9th

The State Board of Tax Commissioners will hold a public hearing on September 9th at 10:00 A. M. CDST in the office of the County auditor of Putnam county, relative to a remonstrance which has been filed in opposition to the proposal of the Board of School Trustees of Greencastle Township, Greencastle City Consolidated School, to establish a cumulative building fund and additional tax levy as set out in their resolution dated July 24, 1947.

Interested taxpayers and school officials are invited to be present and be heard and to present evidence as to whether this proposal should be approved by the State Board of Tax Commissioners.

Soviets Ratify Peace Treaties

LONDON, Aug. 30.—(UP)—Russia in a surprise diplomatic move ratified the peace treaties for five German satellites—Italy, Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Finland—and the path was left open for early restoration of full relations with those ex-enemy countries.

If Russia follows up her action by depositing a formal instrument of ratification, it means that United States troops soon will get out of Italy.

Under the peace treaties Allied troops are to evacuate the countries concerned within 90 days of the deposit of the instruments, except that Russia will be permitted to keep troops in Romania and Hungary "to safeguard routes of communication"—until a treaty restoring Austria's independence has been written.

The Moscow Radio, in a broadcast recorded here, announced ratification of the five treaties by the presidium of the Russian Supreme Soviet or Parliament.

The action came as a great surprise in Allied capitals because Russia had delayed her ratification for months.

Look To Vote In 10th As Test

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. Aug. 30.—(INS)—Political observers to day are looking forward to the special congressional election in the Tenth District as a test to determine whether Republicans have lost strength in Indiana since their peak in the 1946 election.

The special election will be held to fill the seat of Congressman Raymond S. Springer (R) of Connersville, who died of a heart attack Thursday night.

The test is significant because the district includes both urban and rural areas. Cities in the district include Muncie, Richmond, Shelbyville, Greensburg, Connersville, New Castle and Rushville. In a number of these

Boys Aid In Search For Clues

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 30 (UP)—Groups of boys from Father Flannagan's Boys Town aided officials today in a search for clues to the slaying of wealthy Robert L. May II, 22, and his bride, Betty.

Authorities were "just about satisfied" that two young men arrested in connection with the case had no knowledge of the killings.

Police Chief Joe Bosler said Loman D. Brand, 23, discharged naval veteran, would be released to his parents who came here from Mason City, Neb. Brand was exonerated.

Bosler said an alibi given by Isaiah L. Patten, AWOL 18-year-old soldier from Fort Knox Ky., "appears to be holding up." He said Patten probably would be returned to military authorities today. Patten's home is in Cedar Rapids, Ia.

The boys from Boy's Town worked with deputies and other volunteers today, hunting through cornfields surrounding the spot where May and his wife were found dead at the end of a trail of blood. Each had been shot once in the head and their

TWO INDIAN AREAS SWEEP BY BLOODSHED

LABORE AND AMRITSAR
FIGHTING DEVELOPS ON LARGE SCALE

LAHORE, Aug. 30 (UP)—What began two weeks ago as a series of minor riots in the area of Lahore and Amritsar had developed today into a communal blood feud which was spreading like a plague throughout the Punjab.

Split by the commission delineating the boundary between the new dominions of Pakistan and India, Punjab was in a state of uncivilized civil war. It threatened to involve all India, at untold cost in lives, unless some measure of control were restored within a matter of days.

Neither Pakistan nor India had been able to handle the situation which for bloodshed, carnage, suffering and misery had been unequalled in India since the Mogul invasions.

Both governments had shown reluctance to take positive steps or employ forceful action against the culprits.

The leaders had "appealed" for peace, the appeals being accompanied by backhanded slaps at the opposition. Minor officials in many instances had not only tolerated the liquidation of minorities in their areas, but had cooperated.

Two Moslem majors of the frontier force now faced court martial for ordering their troops to attack Sikh refugees, while numerous police had joined in the slaughtering and plundering of minorities.

U. S. Prepared Says General

MANILA, Aug. 30 (UP)—Gen. George C. Kenney said today that the United States "is not unprepared, and won't be," and while not engaged in any war of nerves was going ahead with training, "naturally with the most modern weapons."

Boys Aid In Search For Clues

The best defense against an Atomic attack, he said, is greater offensive power than the enemy.

"If we ever drop an Atom bomb, it will be by order of the President," Kenney said. "We are not engaged in a war of nerves, but are just going on with training, naturally with the most modern weapons."

"You know the story of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and can draw your own conclusions."

"The United States is not unprepared, and won't be. Modern air power is dispersed, and won't be wiped out by any single attack."

Kenney said a global air force must be prepared to fly everywhere under all conditions.

"I advise you to note that millions of people are within a 2,000-mile range of the Philippines," he said. War is fought between peoples, not geography."

He said the Philippines were of supreme strategic importance in the picture of global air power. Clark Field, he said, could handle "any bomber we have, and will continue in that position."

Cars Damaged In Crash Here

City police estimated the property damage at $125 when two local autos got together at the intersection of Walnut and College Avenue Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Gladys Brandt, superintendent of the Putnam county hospital, was driving north on College, and James R. Headley, 329 east Franklin, was going west on Walnut when the accident occurred. Fortunately no one was injured.

Police said Miss Brandt's car went up on the sidewalk by the American Legion Home and hit a street sign. The sign was bent over the bumper and under the front axle. It was necessary to get an acetylene torch from Scott's garage to cut the sign out and away from the automobile.

PUTNAM COURT NOTES

Smith Jones, who was sentenced from Bloomington city court, is charged with escaping from the Indiana state farm on August 27. The affidavit is signed by Albert E. Virgil, farm superintendent.

MANILA, Aug. 30 (UP)—Gen. George C. Kenney said today that the United States "is not unprepared, and won't be," and while not engaged in any war of nerves was going ahead with training, "naturally with the most modern weapons."

Kenny, head of the strategic air command, spoke at a press conference. He was here on a world wide tour of U. S. air installations.

H. S. STUDENTS TO BE TAUGHT SAFE DRIVING

SCHOOL PRESENTED CAR BY LOCAL FORD AGENCY

Through the courtesy of King, Morrison, Foster Co., local Ford dealers since 1916, the Greencastle schools will have the service of a new feathergray, super deluxe Ford Tudor sedan for use during the school year for the purpose of teaching boys and girls, who are approaching driver license age, the proper methods of safe driving. Safety is a required course in the high school curriculum and today we are substituting a picture of this new car being presented to Supt. Kleckner by J. D. McLean, Jr., of the Ford agency, for our regular weekly safe driver award.

Because of increased automobile accident rate, the real need in safety education at the present time is learning proper driving for safety on the highway. School officials feel that this can be made more functional by giving the student actual experience under expert supervision behind the wheel.

The work will be under the direction of Thomas Goldsberry, Director of Physical Education, Health and Safety.

The car has been donated for the use of the school by Don McLean, President of the local Ford Agency. The only expense to the school will be insurance and maintenance on the car.

A course of study and dual control mechanism are provided by the American Automobile Association and a course of instruction for supervisors is being offered October 20-24 by Purdue University. Mr. Goldsberry and other directors throughout the state who have this opportunity through the generosity of local automobile dealers will attend the conference.

Says Mate Eloped With Baby Sitter

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 30 (UP)—The wife of Meredith Porter, 43 year old dapper hairdresser charged today that her husband ran off with her "nice-looking" teen-aged baby sitter and that the elopers took along the baby.

Porter, now in Mississippi where he faces extradition, was indicted for abandoning an older baby he left behind.

Unlike the recent California case where the husband eloped with the baby sitter and returned later with his wife, Porter said that she doesn't want her husband back. All she wants is her 18 months old Billy, reportedly living with Porter's parents in Meadville, Miss.

"I'm going to divorce him," Mrs. Porter said. "But they can't keep my baby."

The 17 year old baby-sitter was identified as Mrs. Porter's aunt.

"My mother's half-sister," Mrs. Porter explained. "She was only 17—and nice looking, very nice looking."

The 25 years old Mrs. Porter moved to Cleveland with her parents when her husband left home. She returned here yesterday to seek custody of both children.

Mrs. Porter said that the baby-sitter, whose name was not revealed, "came to live with us and take care of the house and my two children."

Mrs. Barbara Jean Riggle Gross, 29, wife of Donald Gross of Roachdale, was killed in an auto accident at Winamac on Friday night.

She is survived by the husband; mother, two half-sisters, and four half-brothers.

Funeral services will be held at the St. Bernard Catholic church in Crawfordsville Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Burial in Roachdale cemetery.

ATHENS, Aug. 30.—(INS)—American sources today regarded formation of the new rightist Greek government under Premier Constantine Tsaldaris as a blow to American policy in Greece.

Informed observers predicted the royalist cabinet will be short-lived, with some forecasts giving it no more than a few weeks of control.

Tsaldaris, veteran royalist leader, meanwhile declared he would be willing to relinquish the premiership if a coalition could be formed. He also repeated a pledge to expand the cabinet to include other parties willing to join.

150 Sick After School Lunch

TERRE HAUTE, Aug. 30.—Approximately 150 students and teachers at Blackhawk high school 12 miles southeast of here became ill Friday after eating lunch in the school cafeteria.

Thirty-six of the victims were rushed to Terre Haute hospitals. None of them was reported in critical condition.

Among those stricken were Everett Watkins, the school's principal, and Mrs. Helen Andrews, 35, Mrs. Libby Smith, 21, and Mrs. Katherine Muench, 29 teachers.

Dr. N. H. Silverman of Riley, was called to the school about an hour and a half after the noon meal, and he "found dozens of students" lying ill in the school yard and in the building. He said all those stricken had eaten in the cafeteria and that several students who brought their own lunches had not been affected.

The cafeteria, had served ham salad, potato salad, spaghetti and beans.

Chester N. Canham, acting director of the Terre Haute board of health office, took food samples for analysis.

HUGE LEGION PARADE HELD ON 5TH. AVE.

65,000 LEGIONNAIRES STAGE
PROCESSION ON FAMOUS
N. Y. THOROUGHFARE

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—(UP)—More than 65,000 American Legionnaires, augmented by detachments from the armed services and West Point cadets, will parade up Fifth Avenue all day today in the highlight event of the Legion's 29th annual convention.

Millions of New Yorkers are expected to witness the mammoth march. More than 4,000 policemen have been assigned to the 52-block long line of march.

Marching 12 abreast, the Legionnaires will pass the official reviewing stands in front of the New York public library at 42nd street and 5th avenue and will continue up the most fashionable shopping street in the world.

Ambulances will be stationed every four blocks, first aid tents will be set up and first aid jeeps will patrol the route to care for weary marchers.

National Commander Paul H. Griffith and his party will be in the official reviewing stand.

Legion officials said that today's parade will not be as long as the record 18-hour march up Fifth avenue during the 1937 convention. They said the marchers will be 12 abreast, instead of four abreast as in 1937, to cut down on the time.

Yesterday, 8,000 wildly cheering Legion delegates and their wives heard Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower endorse their demand for universal military training.

Calling UMT the least burdensome way to maintain strong defense against aggression, the army chief of staff said that Americans must "face the hard fact" that cooperative spirit among nations had lost ground since the end of the war.

Gen. Eisenhower was one of the three chiefs of the armed services during the war who addressed the second day convention session in the hot, steaming 71st Regiment armory.

The others were Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, and Air Force General Carl A. Spaatz. Both Nimitz and Spaatz called for a strongly armed America as imperative to combat surprise attack.

"All must work together—or eventually we will all work under the whip," Gen. Eisenhower said.

The delegates interrupted Eisenhower seven times with ovations during his address. National Commander Griffith introduced him as "the man more than any other who produced victory in Europe."

The Kansas delegation, shouting "yippee, yippee," charged to the platform to greet their favorite son. An "Eisenhower for president" group marched around the armory bearing placards demanding the grinning general's election in 1948.

Eisenhower, who will retire from the army to become president of Columbia University January 1, was followed on the speaker's stand by Admiral Nimitz.

The delegation led by the Texas group cheered the admiral for several minutes before he gave his views favoring UMT.

Gen. Spaatz, who follows Nimitz, said "although every American wants peace it is maintained by wishful thinking."

Today's parade was the scheduled event of the day for visitors and residents in New were promised plenty of prompt high-jinks as a festive spirit of the Legion mounted steadily in intensity.

cities the CIO is strong and that organization is especially bitter toward the Republicans because of the passage of the Taft-Hartley bill.

It will be an uphill battle for the Democrats because Springer was reelected last November by a 26,000-vote margin over his Democratic opponent, Frank C. Unger, of Farmland, former Tenth district chairman of his party.

Nominees of both parties for Congress will be selected by the Tenth District committees, composed of the county chairmen. There are reports that in order to save money, the Governor might set the election date at the same time as the municipal elections.

John H. Nigh, of Greenfield, G. O. P. district chairman, said he probably will delay calling his committee together until after the Governor has fixed the election date but Harry McClain, of Shelbyville, Democratic chairman of the district, said he would assemble his committeemen within the next few days.

Among the Republican possibilities for the congressional nomination are John Humelick, of Connersville, Fayette county chairman, who was a lieutenant colonel in the Fourth Armored Division in World War II; Leo Kinman, Shelbyville editor and Shelby county chairman; James M. Knapp, of Hagerstown, former House speaker and now State Personnel Commission director; State Representative Lothar Teeter, Hagerstown manufacturer; Elmer Bossert, Liberty attorney, and Clifford Payne, New Castle clothier and civic leader.

It would appear that Unger would have the inside track in the Democratic contest because he was the nominee in 1946, but there may be a cry for new blood. In that event, the following are deemed possibilities: Mayor Sidney Baker of New Castle; Andrew Ketchum, farmer of near Greensburg and former State budget director; McClain and Pleas E. Greenlee of Shelbyville, now state chairman. Funeral services for Mr. Springer will be held in Connersville Monday and it is believed that the governor will set the election date soon afterwards.

OBITUARY

There is a stream we all must cross
The river of human years
Now lying calm in the summer light
Now splashed with the rain of tears.

Out from the hill of God it flows
And on to the shoreless sea,
Where the noontide sun no shadow throws
And time is eternity.

Amanda E., second child of a family of twelve children born to William Riley and Cynthia Pritchard Buis was born in Morgan county, Indiana, August 17, 1856, crossed the river of death and entered her eternal home August 23rd, 1947, just six days after her 91st birthday August 17. At this time she was living with her daughter, Mrs. George Webster, east of Greencastle.

On March 30th, 1882, she was united in marriage to John W. Terry. They established their home on a farm about one mile east of Mt. Meridian.

To this union were born eleven children: Tom of Floyd township, Mrs. Frona Tinscher and Mrs. Pearl Webster of Marion township, Mrs. Annie Runyan of Mooresville, Mrs. Hurtha Sharp and Herbert of Greencastle, Mrs. Lena Turner of Cloverdale and Roy of Mt. Meridian. Three of these, Mrs. Ada M. Driscoll, Edgar and an infant have preceded her to the Great Beyond. There are twenty-five grandchildren and twenty-four great-grandchildren.

This husband and wife traveled life's pathway together, sharing the joys and sorrows together for more than forty-three years.

In later years they purchased a farm northwest of Mt. Meridian. About twenty-two years ago this home was broken when the father was taken; but mother clung to the home she loved making a heroic effort to stay on the farm. Due to failing health it was necessary for her to leave her home to live with her children, who did their best to make her happy and comfortable.

She was a good and true mother, devoted to her family, and friends ever ready to sacrifice for their best interest.

At the age of 81 years she underwent a major operation. Since that time she had been in failing health, but bore her suffering with Christian courage, which proved that death had no fear for her.

Besides her immediate family she is survived by one sister, Mrs. John Butler of Belle Union; and four brothers Alva of California, Emory of New Mexico, Harvey and Lora of Marion township, and many relatives and friends.

The loss is great but we find consolation in the fact that rest has come to her who so faithfully bore the burdens of her day. And now a new day has dawned for her—a day that shall never close—for there is no night there, a day that brought joy unspeakable to her.

And in closing we know nothing more fitting to say than: "Servant of God, well done Thy glorious warfare past. The battle fought, the victory won. And thou art crowned at last." The stars shine over the earth, The stars shine over the sea, The stars look up to the mighty God.

The stars look down on me. The stars may live a million years, And a million years and a day, But God and I shall live and love When the stars have passed away.

Looking at Life

Erich Brandeis'

How many words do you know?

Probably too many for your own good. But let us be serious for a minute.

Some educators, who may not have anything better to do for the time being, counted the vocabularies of children of different ages and came to the conclusion that, based on the number of words known by today's average child, modern knowledge is much greater than it used to be.

If it interests you, the average child of four knows 5,600 basic words; age five 9,600; age six 14,700, and so on to age 10, when the vocabulary averages 34,300 words.

It has also been established that in all his writings Milton used 11,000 words; Shakespeare 16,000; Victor Hugo 20,000.

I haven't the slightest idea how many words I know, and I am sure you haven't ever counted your own vocabulary.

It doesn't make any difference how many words we know but how we use those that we do know.

Sometimes, when I listen to speeches or read lengthy dissertations, I wish that there were fewer words in the average human vocabulary, but that those words were used much more wisely and clearly than they are being bandied around.

Unquestionably some little

Fourth-of-July orator could have showed Abraham Lincoln how to make a Gettysburg Address in four times as many words as he used.

Had he done so, that address would be forgotten today instead of having become an immortal document of human greatness.

The Sermon on the Mount takes just a few minutes to read and took just a few moments to deliver.

Any average Congressman or Senator or aspirant for the job of dogcatcher in his community could have beaten Christ in Vocabulary and promptness.

Where will their great vocabularies be when that Sermon on the Mount is still fresh and alive and still a shining example of brevity and beauty?

According to the vocabulary surveys, more words mean more knowledge.

That's a lot of rot. As I said, it is not how many words you know but how you use the words you do know.

Much can be said with few words, little may be felt when many are spoken.

There is a big difference between the words that come from the heart and those that come out of a dictionary.

"When words are scarce they're seldom spent in vain," wrote Shakespeare, whose vocabulary, according to the survey, was smaller than that of the modern seven-year-old child. Don't worry too much about your vocabulary. A jewel chest is often small; a garbage can is usually large.

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Paul M. Robinson

John 14:3. "And if I prepare a place for you, come again, and receive me to myself; that where I am ye may be also."

There is no question for one the certainty of the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will leave the place He occupies at the right hand of the Father to come in the clouds of heaven to catch away the church. The Bible according to 1 Thessalonians 4:13-17. Then Jesus is coming later with people who have trusted through the ages to establish a kingdom on the earth to Zachariah 14:3-11. Did Christ speak often coming back to the earth? The Apostles bound it every doctrine they writer of the book of Heb. 10:25 does not say "go to church" but he says "as ye see approaching" be sure not to miss the assembling of the church together. Listen because Jesus is coming some day and we are going to meet Him. If we have forsaken Him, we are going to have a hard time when He comes.

When again the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ is the Apostle Paul as a motive for consistent living. In 1 Thess. 5:23 "I pray God your whole soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

When the Apostle Paul comfort those mourning their Christian dead he tells them that "The dead shall be raised up. When the great apostle discourse with these Thess. 4:18, "Wherefore comfort one another with words. What words is he about? Surely the answer to this question will be found when we read 1 Thess. 4:17 about Jesus coming to meet the living. In the resurrection of Christ to give us bodies and be with us forever.

The book of James has interesting things to say about the church. In the letter of James we read of definite judgment to be meted out because of unbelief. Then James 5:7 asks "Be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord." Some have been settled in the world but most of them have not been settled until Jesus comes.

James 1:2 and 3 says "My brethren, count it all joy when ye are assailed by various temptations, knowing that the trial of your faith is as fire, which purifies the gold, and the trial of your faith, which is much more precious than of gold, because it is able to save your souls. Wherefore, my brethren, be patient, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and every one that hath sinned shall be taken away. And ye shall see him, and shall be glorified. Because ye desire the day of his coming, ye shall be patient. Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him, and every one that hath sinned shall be taken away. And ye shall see him, and shall be glorified."

James 5:7 asks "Be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord." Some have been settled in the world but most of them have not been settled until Jesus comes.

course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous judge, shall give me at that day." II Tim. 4:7.

Revelation 22:12 says, "Behold, I am with me." Paul has been in heaven a long time but he has not received his reward yet and will not until Jesus comes again.

III. If Jesus should not return there would be no hope of this world. You and I well know that history of this world has been written in blood and tears. And yet the Word of God tells of a time when the knowledge of the Lord shall fill the earth, nations shall learn war no more and etc. This day is always associated with the return of Christ. Fifty-four million people died directly or indirectly as a result of this last war. War is outstanding sign of Christ's coming. The world will cry peace and safety while war rages, then sudden destruction will come upon the earth. When Christ comes to take His won it will mean awful judgment for those left behind.

IV. If Jesus should not come the wicked would not be judged. But Matt. 25:31 and many other scriptures give us a clear knowledge of God's judgment on the ones who reject God's Son as their Saviour.

V. The Jewish Nation would have no hope and would never be converted if Jesus did not come. Zeck. 12:10. Zeck. 13:6.

VI. The Devil would never be bound if Jesus didn't come. There is no hope for this world while Satan is the Prince of this world. No one can bind him but Christ. Rev. 20.

The Second Coming of Christ is not a movement or a gift but He Himself shall descend from heaven. Acts 1:11 says "This same Jesus that ye have seen taken up shall come again." Beloved have you trusted Him as your own personal Saviour? Are you ready if He should come today?

who were placed there by local police. For one thing, he gets DDT and sprays their cells—a service greatly appreciated. Recently they confessed to him that only their arrest stopped them from burning down his church, and kidnapping him. Now they are interested in Christianity and the service it given the unfortunate. Keeping pace with the rapid growth of population in the states of Washington, Oregon, and California—which now have 3,500,000 more people than in 1940—the National Lutheran Council has aided in the establishment of more than 100 new Lutheran churches in these states in recent years. About 150 other communities in these states are being surveyed for possible future Lutheran service.

Naval Aviation Branch Future Seen Uncertain

Rank Looms Key Man In Movie Compromise

Special to Central Press
WASHINGTON—Despite Navy's valiant, and apparently successful, fight to retain control of its aviation in the future, the prospects of the sky sailors are not nearly as bright as the wings of gold they wear.

Congress wrote into the Army-Navy unification bill a provision safeguarding the naval aviation's identity, but the Navy and independent Air Force brass have spotted a loophole already. It is this: Next-to-last word on appropriations—Congress gets final say—will be the new defense secretary, "boss of all three services." With that power he can easily put any branch out of business.

Navy has no apprehension over the course its secretary, James Forrestal, who will be sworn in as the nation's first defense secretary, will pursue. However, the Navy is afraid he will carry out his reported determination to resign within a year.

Air power advocates have long preached absorption of naval flying into their long-sought, now-achieved independent air arm. Little doubt exists that the first air power man to become the defense boss will reduce the Navy's aviation branch to a mere name.

MOVIE TAX—British movie tycoon J. Arthur Rank looms as the key figure in the squabble between Hollywood and Great Britain over the 75 per cent tax on American-made films. In fact, some sources think that if the confiscatory tax operates too much to Britain's disadvantage Rank may intercede to effect a settlement which would be in harmony with British efforts to limit luxury imports and still assure Hollywood its English market. One reason is that the tall, heavy-set movie man is Britain's leading producer and exhibitor whose chain of movie theaters depends heavily on American pictures. Should United States film imports decline to a dribble, many of Rank's theaters would be forced to close and Britain would realize virtually nothing on the tax. Then, too, Hollywood might force British films out of the United States market.

BROOKINGS LOOKS AHEAD—The Brookings Institution believes that each nation faces the "stark alternatives of joining in effective international collaboration for peace or risking possible annihilation" in a third world war.

With that in mind, the institution is beginning a broad study of international relations designed, among other things, to help supply a reservoir of trained specialists in international affairs.

United States foreign policy will be scrutinized closely by the Brookings staff, particularly on major problems arising from two kinds of situations.

First will be a study of the problem presented where the United States has initiated an active policy that is being resisted by another country, and second, where another country has initiated an active policy where the United States, in return, is the resister nation.

ON THE LABOR FRONT—Signs of the times: The machine-tool industry, generally regarded as a good barometer of United States industrial activity, is in a slight slump with employment and production declining.

Employment is down 10 per cent from Jan. 1 and normally this would cause economists to sit up and take notice. But it is not alarming in the present situation. Machine-tool industry officials explain that they are suffering from the disposal of government-owned surplus tools, therefore their decline in business.

The industry's answer is to go to work on research developing new and better tools which will render the existing ones obsolete.

Radio manufacturing employment and production also is off for somewhat similar reasons. The industry has flooded the market with ordinary type sets and the public now is waiting for the new, static-free FM units.

Employment also is off in textiles, rubber and aluminum, but elsewhere the economy continues in high gear.

PRINCE OF WALES ONCE "MOST ANGELIC IMP"

NEW YORK (UP) — The World Book Encyclopedia notes that the original meanings of many words have changed considerably. "Depart" used to mean separate or decide. The old English marriage service once read "till death do us depart." A "jig" was once a fiddle to whose music the country folk danced. "Imp" used to mean a young shoot of a plant. Then it came to mean child, and prayers offered for the health of the Prince of Wales at one time referred to him as "that most angelic imp." The word "cab" is a short form of cabriolet, which originally meant a leap or caper like that of a wild goat.

LOVER WANTS JAIL

NEW YORK (UP) — Harry Giannadaro, 32, was charged with seven traffic violations after a 14-block chase by two police officers in a radio car, who said Giannadaro explained he had been disappointed in love. "I'm in love," they quoted him as saying. "I want to go to jail for six months. The longer the better." A traffic court magistrate was to decide later whether he would oblige Giannadaro.

Fishin' Fun

This weekend will undoubtedly see many of the local hopefuls engaged in their favorite pastimes, as they try to escape the wrath of the weather man. We hear that the mercury is supposed to climb to the hundred degree mark. There is a full calendar of activity for everyone this week end as the fishing should be good, there is a State Fair in full swing, and we have a State Softball Tournament right here in our own town. No doubt there will be several family picnics and the rest of us will just lie around and dream of a white Christmas.
